Boston / Belmont Dialogues: A Progress Report

At this year's Martin Luther King Jr. breakfast, both Mo Cowan and Sam Williams (our guest speakers) challenged the community to "keep the dialogue going". In response, BAR announced our intention to hold a series of dialogues starting this spring.

Planning has been underway for the past few months, and an experienced facilitator associated with MIT has been selected. The first Boston / Belmont Dialogue took place on May 31, 2009. At our annual meeting, we will present a progress report on the dialogue series. Participants will discuss the planning process, our experiences to date, and the plans for extending the process over the next year.

Please join us for this informative discussion. If you would like to participate in future dialogues, the annual meeting will be the ideal opportunity to learn about the process and get involved.

7:30 – Fun and Fundraiser: Coffeehouse with “Richard Curzi and Positive Energy”

After the meeting, many of us will move upstairs to enjoy the great music at the BAR fundraiser! Thanks to the UU Second Friday Coffeehouse for their support. Donation is $10 at the door, $5 for seniors and students.
